Victor Hess was born on April 23, 1923 in Charleston, West Virginia, moved to New Orleans in 1938 and served in the United States Air Force from 1943 to 1945. Hess received both a B.A. and LL.D. from Tulane University. From 1948 to 1957 he served as trial lawyer in the New Orleans branch of the National Labor Relations Board. In 1957 he became associated with the law firm of Cassibry, Jackson and Hess and later formed the law firm of Hess and Jackson. Hess held office in various PTA groups associated with the New Orleans Public School System and was active during the 1960s in the movement to keep public schools opened. He was elected to the Orleans Public School Board in 1964, serving as Board President in 1964, and remained in office until 1971. Hess is married to Marjorie Dessauer and has five children.
